WHEREAS, PROPOSER and the COMPANY may enter into agreements or business transactions with each other in the future (the "Transaction"); in the course of the aforementioned prospective Transaction, the parties have and may disclose to the other certain Confidential Information as hereinafter defined; and each party wishes to restrict the use of and to protect the confidentiality of its Confidential Information regardless of whether the parties actually enter into the Transaction;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration for being given access to information that is confidential and proprietary, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Confidential Information.

A. The term "Confidential Information" means any data or information of the Disclosing Party, whether oral, written or otherwise recorded, which is identified by that party as non-public, confidential, or proprietary in nature. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Confidential Information, whether or not specifically identified as such, includes all information concerning or consisting of the following business affairs of the Disclosing Party:

- (i) Financial Information: Any financial information, descriptions, or summaries, including but not limited to those involving the Disclosing Party's assets, financial condition, investment portfolio, or custodial arrangements.
- (ii) Business Information: Any design, idea, process, procedure, formula or improvement, or any portion or phase thereof; lists of, or any other information relating to any customers, suppliers, service delivery mechanisms, vendors, dealers, agents or employees and the relationships therewith; and any financial information relating to any of the foregoing.
- (iii) Technical Information: Scientific, computer or other technical matters including but not limited to technology, research, methods, processes, formulae, compositions, systems, techniques, inventions, machines, computer programs and research projects.
- (iv) Marketing and Sales Information: Customer lists; customer account information; pricing data; sources of supply, financial data and marketing, production, or merchandising; sales, marketing, financial and strategies systems, approaches or plans; and information relating to any current or proposed products, services, methods, businesses or business plans, marketing, pricing, distribution and other business strategies.
- (v) Customer Information: Any personal financial information or nonpublic information relating to customers.
- (vi) Transaction Materials: This Agreement, any documents or information concerning the Transaction, the negotiation or any offers made or received regarding the Transaction.

- B. Confidential Information also includes any analyses, compilations, forecasts, studies, or other documents or records that contain, are based on, or otherwise reflect or are generated in whole or in part by the Receiving Party from the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information, including that stored on any computer, word processor or other similar device.
- C. In addition to the foregoing, and not in limitation thereof, any trade secrets of the Disclosing Party will also be entitled to all of the protections and benefits under applicable state trade secret law and any other applicable law. If information that the Disclosing Party deems to be a trade secret is found by a court of competent jurisdiction not to be a trade secret for purposes of this Agreement, then such information will be considered Confidential Information for purposes of this Agreement. In the case of trade secrets, the parties hereby waive any requirement that the Disclosing Party submit proof of the economic value thereof.
- D. Confidential Information does not include information that (i) is now, or hereafter becomes, generally known or available to the public through no act by the Receiving Party or persons to whom the Receiving Party has made such information available; (ii) the Receiving Party has received in good faith from a third party that, to the knowledge of Receiving Party, has legitimate possession of and the right to disclose such information; (iii) was in the legitimate possession of the Receiving Party prior to the Disclosing Party's disclosure to the Receiving Party; (iv) has been approved by the Disclosing Party for disclosure by written consent; or (v) the Receiving Party independently developed without the benefit of data received from the Disclosing Party, which independent development the Receiving Party has the burden of establishing by clear and convincing evidence.
- E. For the purposes of this Agreement, the party receiving Confidential Information from the other party will be referred to as the Receiving Party, and the party disclosing such information will be referred to as the Disclosing Party.

2. Use and Disclosure.

- A. COMPANY will maintain the confidentiality of PROPOSER's information and will use it solely for the purpose of performing COMPANY's duties and obligations under agreements between the parties.

PROPOSER will use COMPANY's confidential Information for the purpose of responding to an RFP for a bid proposal for the Coushatta Casino Resort PHASE 2 Renovation Project.

- B. The Receiving Party will not disclose any portion of the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information to any person other than its employees, agents, representatives, affiliates, officers, or directors with a need to know or who require such material for the purposes set forth in the preceding paragraph. The Receiving Party agrees to be responsible for enforcing the terms of this Agreement as to persons to whom it discloses Confidential Information, and to take such actions that are commercially reasonable to ensure compliance with the terms of this Agreement and to prevent a disclosure of the Confidential Information by any person to whom the Receiving Party has disclosed Confidential Information.

- C. Each party acknowledges and agrees that, except as may be set forth in a definitive, written purchase agreement in respect of the Transaction, no party nor any of its directors, officers, employees, affiliates, agents or advisors shall have been deemed to make, or shall be responsible for, any representations or warranties, express or implied, with respect to the accuracy or completeness of the Confidential Information supplied under this Agreement. Further, it is acknowledged hereby by each party that only those representations and warranties made by the parties in a definitive, written purchase agreement in respect of the Transaction, if any, shall have any force or effect.
  - D. Receiving Party acknowledges that as a result of the disclosure of the Confidential Information to it, it shall not receive any right, title or interest in, or any license or right to use, the Confidential Information or any patent, copyright, trade secret, trademark or other intellectual property rights included therein, by implication or otherwise. All Confidential Information (including all copies thereof), and the rights and title thereto, shall at all times remain the property of the Disclosing Party.
- 3. Mandatory Disclosure. If the Receiving Party is required by legal process of a court of competent jurisdiction or other governing regulatory authority to disclose any Confidential Information, the Receiving Party will give prompt advance notice prior to disclosure so that the Disclosing Party may seek a protective order or other appropriate relief. If such order or relief is not obtained, the Receiving Party will disclose only that portion of the Confidential Information which its counsel advises it is legally required to disclose, provided that Receiving Party will exercise its reasonable efforts to preserve the confidentiality of the Confidential Information including without limitation by cooperating with the Disclosing Party to obtain an appropriate order or other reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded the Confidential Information by such court or regulatory authority.
- 4. Security of Confidential Information. Notwithstanding any contrary provisions of any agreement between PROPOSER and COMPANY, the Receiving Party will protect Confidential Information with at least the same degree of care that it uses to protect its own confidential information, but in no event less than compliance with applicable laws. The Receiving Party will use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that each person to whom it gives access to Confidential Information under this Agreement observes the requirements thereto.
- 5. Return or Destruction of Confidential Information. Receiving Party and its representatives will return to the Disclosing Party or destroy upon demand all Confidential Information provided to Receiving Party or its Representatives, including all copies thereof which may have been made by or on behalf of Receiving Party or its Representatives, and Receiving Party shall destroy, or cause to be destroyed, all notes or memoranda or other stored information of any kind prepared by Receiving Party or its Representatives relating to the Confidential Information or negotiations generally. - 6. Duration and Termination. This Agreement and the obligations owed hereunder shall expire on the tenth (10th) anniversary of the date hereof, unless sooner terminated pursuant to the written agreement of the parties.

The Receiving Party will not use or copy any Confidential Information other than as expressly in accordance herewith or as may otherwise be approved in advance in writing by the Disclosing Party.
- 8. Equitable Remedies. Receiving Party acknowledges that the unauthorized disclosure of Confidential Information is likely to cause irreparable injury to Disclosing Party and that, in the event of a violation or threatened violation of any of Receiving Party's obligations hereunder, Disclosing Party shall have no adequate remedy at law and shall therefore be entitled to seek to enforce each such obligation by temporary or permanent injunctive or mandatory relief obtained in any court of competent jurisdiction without the necessity of proving damages, posting any bond or other security, and without prejudice to any other rights and remedies which may be available at law or in equity. Such unauthorized disclosure shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement and Disclosing Party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement immediately and recover any and all reasonable costs incurred in enforcing or protecting its rights hereunder. With respect to any dispute, claim, or legal action between the parties regarding or relating to this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover all reasonable out of pocket costs and expenses (including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred as a result thereof.
- 9. Survival of Obligations. The obligations of the parties hereunder will survive the termination of the Transaction between them, unless expressly terminated or amended in writing.
- 10. Waiver. No waiver of any of the terms of this Agreement will be effective without the Disclosing Party's written consent. The waiver by the Disclosing Party of a breach of any provision hereof will not constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision, nor will it constitute a waiver of the provision itself.
- 11. Authorization. Each signatory hereto personally and individually affirms that his or her execution and delivery of this Agreement, and the performance of this Agreement, have been duly and validly authorized by all necessary action by the party on whose behalf he or she is signing.

Any assignment in violation of this Paragraph shall be deemed null and void.
- 13. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the Coushatta Tribe of Louisiana. Any action brought against the Coushatta Tribe of Louisiana shall only be filed in the Tribal Court of the Coushatta Tribe of Louisiana.
- 14. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or portion thereof, is held to be invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be reduced or modified by such court to the extent necessary to make such provision legal and enforceable. If reduction or modification is not possible, the provision found illegal, invalid or unenforceable will be severed here from and the remaining provisions of the Agreement will remain in full force and effect.

15. Modification. This Agreement may be amended, modified, altered, changed, assigned, or transferred only if such amendment, modification, alteration, change, assignment, or transfer is in writing and signed by both parties. This Agreement will inure to the benefit of, will be binding upon, and will be enforceable by the parties hereto and their permitted successors and assigns.
